

Active Read Questions Thursday 9th July

This week's questions:

1. After the play, the newspaper said that Paddington "had saved the day". How did he do that?

2. Paddington had never been to the beach before. How do you think he might have felt? What would you say to him to convince him that he would have fun?

3. When Paddington had his photo taken as a reward for free, Mrs Brown said that he "always fell on his feet". What did she mean?

4. If you won £10 in a sandcastle building competition, what would you spend the money on? Why did you choose those items?

Happy answering!
