

Personal Space

My name is _____.

My teacher is _____.

I am _____ years old and go to _____ School.

Sometimes I stand or sit too close to my friends.

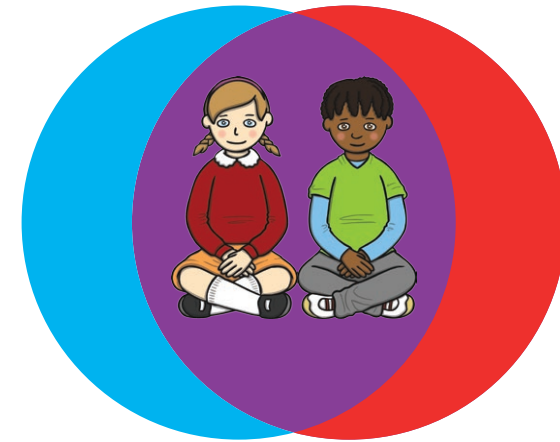

This might be uncomfortable for my friends.

Being too close to someone is called being in their 'personal space'.

Personal Space

Overlapping Personal Space

I can check if I am in someone's 'personal space' by using my arm.

If I can touch them, I am too close.

I need to leave one arm's space between us.

I will check this by using my arm.

My friends will be happy if I remember their 'personal space'.

My teachers will be happy if I remember their 'personal space'.

I will try to remember their 'personal space'.
