

CHALKWELL HALL INFANT SCHOOL

EQUALITIES POLICY & OBJECTIVES

Agreed by The Full Governing Body: Autumn 2023

Policy Review: Autumn 2026

Objectives Annual Review: Summer 2025

Equalities Policy

Introduction

Chalkwell Infant School seeks to foster a caring and respectful environment, which allows us to question and challenge discrimination and inequality, resolve conflicts fairly and work and learn free from harassment and violence. We hope to prepare our learners for tomorrow's world through committing to creating a community that recognises and celebrates difference within a culture of respect and co-operation.

The policy outlines the commitment of the staff and Governors to promote equality. This involves tackling the barriers which could lead to unequal outcomes for identified groups of pupils in school, ensuring there is equality of access and celebrating and valuing the heritage and strengths of the school community.

We believe that equality at our school should permeate all aspects of school life and is the responsibility of every member of the school and wider community. Every member of the school community should feel safe, secure, valued and of equal worth. At Chalkwell Hall Infant School, equality is a key principle for treating all people the same irrespective of their gender, ethnicity, disability, religious beliefs/faith tradition, sexual orientation, age or any other recognised area of discrimination.

This policy has been drawn up as a result of discussion between different stakeholders.

Aims:

Our school aims to meet its obligations under the Public Sector Equality Duty by having due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate discrimination and other conduct that is prohibited by the Equality Act 2010
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it
- Foster good relations across all characteristics – between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it

Legislation and Guidance

This document meets the requirements under the following legislation:

- The Equality Act 2010, which introduced the public sector equality duty and protects people from discrimination.
- The Equality Act 2010 \(Specific Duties\) Regulations 2011, which require schools to publish information to demonstrate how they are complying with the public sector equality duty and to publish equality objectives
- This document is also based on Department for Education \(DfE\) guidance: The Equality Act 2010 and schools.

The Public Sector Equality Duty requires our school to publish information about Equalities. The Equality Act 2010 clearly states that the following groups must be taken into account. People identified in the following groups are considered to have a protected characteristic.

Protected Characteristics:

- sex
- race
- disability
- religion or belief
- sexual orientation
- gender reassignment
- pregnancy or maternity

There are also two other protected characteristics where schools do not have a direct duty:

- Age
- Marriage and Civil Partnership

The Public Sector Equality Duty (2011) has three aims under the general duty for Schools, Academies and Settings:

1. Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Act. By removing or minimising disadvantages suffered by people due to their protected characteristics.
2. Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not. By taking steps to meet the needs of people from protected groups where these are different from the needs of other people
3. Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not. By encouraging people from protected groups to participate in public life or in other activities where their participation is disproportionately low.

The information we publish and analyse must be clearly linked to the three aims (General Duties) of the Public Sector Equality Duty. General duties are the things that schools aim to achieve.

Policy Commitments: Promoting Equality

Curriculum

We aim to provide all our pupils with the opportunity to succeed, and to reach the highest level of personal achievement. To achieve this we will ensure:

- Curriculum planning reflects a commitment to equality, including meeting the needs of children with EAL;
- The curriculum prepares pupils for life in a diverse society and uses opportunities to reflect the background and experience of pupils and families in the school;
- The curriculum is underpinned by themes which explore identity, inclusion, equality, equity and diversity;
- The promotion of attitudes and values that challenge discriminatory behaviour and language;
- The use of non-stereotyped materials which accurately reflect a range of cultures, identities, lifestyles and languages.

Achievement

There is a consistently high expectation of all pupils regardless of age, gender, ethnicity, ability, social background and sexual orientation. To secure the best possible outcomes we recognise that:

- Adults in the school will be expected to provide good, positive role models in their approach to all issues relating to equality of opportunity;
- It is important to identify the particular needs of individuals and groups within the school and to use targeted interventions to narrow gaps in achievement;
- It is important to place a high priority on the provision for special educational needs and disability;
- A range of teaching methods need to be used throughout the school to ensure that effective learning takes place at all stages for all pupils, including those with EAL or SEN, and that to promote pupil engagement pupils are encouraged to be actively involved in their own learning.

Ethos and Atmosphere

We seek to foster a caring and respectful environment, which allows us to question and challenge discrimination and inequality.

- At Chalkwell Hall Infant School, we are aware that those involved in the leadership of the school community are instrumental in demonstrating mutual respect between all members of the school community;
- There should be a feeling of openness and tolerance which welcomes everyone to the school;
- The children are encouraged to greet visitors to the school with friendliness and respect;

- Reasonable adjustments will be made to ensure access for pupils and visitors (including parents) with disabilities and additional language requirements;
- Provision is made to cater for the cultural, moral and spiritual needs of all children through planning of assemblies, classroom based and off site activities;
- Children with EAL are provided with the resources and provision they need to successfully access the curriculum;

- Pupils are given an effective voice, for example through the Pupil Voice and through pupil perception surveys which regularly seek their views;
- Positive role models are used throughout the school to ensure that different groups of pupils can see themselves reflected in the school community.

Staff Recruitment and Professional Development
