Odd Socks Day for Anti-Bullying

Monday 10th November

Dear Parents and Carers,

On Monday 10th November, to mark the start of Anti-Bullying Week and the 'Odd Socks' initiative, we ask that your child comes to school wearing different socks pulled up over the bottom of their uniform. If your child is wearing tights, they can just wear these over the top and if they have trousers then they can tuck their trousers into the bottom. These socks can be any socks they want, but each sock should be different and not match each other.

The socks represent their uniqueness and all of our differences. It is an opportunity for them to express themselves and celebrate our individuality, what makes us unique and spread kindness. They may also bring in an extra pair of unmatched socks that can be used as hand puppets when role playing kindness during our soft start sessions.

We look forward to seeing all the different, vibrant socks.

Thank you in advance for your support.

Kind regards,

Miss de Garston-Webb
